Students must be at least 18 years old to register for massage courses and have graduated high school or equivalent. Each student must have the ability to read and write, communicate effectively and understand complex information. Students must also be physically capable of giving and receiving massage. Enrollment for accepted students is on a first-come, first-serve basis.

Coeur d'Alene Massage School does not discriminate based on age, race, color, religion, ethnic or national origin, disability or gender. Coeur d'Alene Massage School reserves the right to deny a student admission if the student is unable to meet the demands of the program or profession. Coeur d'Alene Massage School will not enroll any person convicted of any crime of a sexual nature including, but not limited to: rape, molestation, sexual assault, prostitution and voyeurism. Coeur d'Alene Massage School is an Equal Opportunity Program and Employer. Auxiliary aids and services are available upon request.

Students may cancel their enrollment and receive a full refund for a course if they notify Coeur d'Alene Massage School at least three full business days before the class begins. All but $50 will be refunded if withdrawal is requested within the 3day period before the class starts. After the class begins students, a 50% refund will be given if withdrawal is in the first quarter of class, a 25% refund will be given in the second quarter and no refund if withdrawal occurs after half of the course is completed. Exceptions may be made in an emergency situation.

I understand that Coeur d'Alene Massage School is registered with the State Board of Education in accordance with Section 33-2403, Idaho Code. I also understand that the State Board of Education has not accredited or endorsed any course of study being offered by CDA Massage School, and that these courses may not be accepted for transfer into any Idaho public postsecondary institution.

I have read the information above and agree to the terms of enrollment at Coeur d'Alene Massage School.
